

Content Creator Guidelines For...

The End Of Slavery Summit

Hosts: Cory Endrulat & Aaron Butler (Email corye@disroot.org)

You are a speaker for a summit. A summit is a multi-day event, where each day there is a featured number of randomly selected speakers. Those who join the event with the registration form on www.nita.one/summit will be emailed each day for the event. Upon registration, the individual also receives compiled free gifts. The summit is focused on the topic of Slavery. Other associated topics include abolitionism, freedom, ownership, responsibility and equality. Each speaker has about a 1-hour interview from the hosts about their chosen topic. At the end of the interview, the speaker is asked more about action, abolitionism and their own end of statism.

What You Must Provide The Hosts (Email In NUMBERED Format):

1. Your main topic related to the focus of the summit, it may sound like a presentation title. (it must be a phrase such as “Slavery In Our Economy” or “How Morality Can End Slavery” or “Owning Up To Self-Ownership” or “Slavery Everywhere, Oh My!” or “The History Of How We Enslaved Ourselves” or “Why Are We Becoming More Enslaved?”)
2. One resource for individuals to download. (helpful pdf or image)
3. Provide the hosts with 3 times & days to record that works for you.
4. OPTIONAL: Powerpoint slides, images or a list of topics to mention that goes with your topic. (it will be used during the interview; in any case, slides and images will be created by hosts accordingly to the interview)

Share the event website on your social media sites.
Get it out to as much people as possible!

Also be sure to check out www.nita.one/newspaper to join in our next project of contributing to our free weekly educative online and real-life newspaper “The Liberator 2” to end slavery! The submission guidelines are provided and anyone can contribute! Those who sign up for the summit will also automatically be registered to receive this newspaper in their email.

Note: All that you provide will remain 100% free, not for ANY profit.